Hey Tom, I'm back as of today. Any chance I can get a copy of the draft version to look at? I won't share with Mgt until you have finalized, but I'm quickly trying to come up to speed on things since we have a briefing on Friday. Thanks, Kathy _____

During our call Wednesday I mentioned that we would likely have a briefing paper to share this week. We shared a draft with our front office on Wednesday, but it is still being reviewed/edited. I think we'll see it by early next week and will share it when it's available. If we don't see it by Tuesday we'll at least share the latest draft with you at that time. Tom
